

Part one: vocabulary

Directions: Complete the following sentences by using the most suitable word or phrases below each one.

- 121 . Drug errors a high percentage of otherwise preventable death.
 a. diminish with b. depart from c. conform to d. account for
- 122 . Through an insurance plan, the insured person receives payment for the covered expenses and then the provider of health services.
 a. resolves b. retains c. reimburses d. represents
- 123 . In spite of a long interview with the patient, the doctor failed to the required information.
 a. emit b. elicit c. encounter d. embarrass
- 124 . Efforts to preserve both plant populations and knowledge on how to use them for medicinal purposes are needed to traditional medicine as a profession.
 a. obtain b. remain c. sustain d. contain
- 125 . Traditional medicine practices have been adopted in different cultures and regions without the parallel advance of international standards and methods for
 a. initiation b. evaluation c. association d. contamination
- 126 . The discovery of the drug was the result of several years of not chance.
 a. complication b. cessation c. inquiry d. impotency
- 127 . The rate of is higher among newborns who are premature.
 a. mortality b. survival c. promotion d. distraction
- 128 . Some experiments have shown that may work as well as real medicines.
 a. dispersers b. injections c. disposables d. placebos
- 129 . His new theory was as he was unable to provide enough evidence.
 a. adopted b. refuted c. endorsed d. advocated
- 130 . There is no need for such devices; ordinary and simple tools can do the job well.
 a. sophisticated b. rudimentary c. crude d. redundant
- 131 . Good health in this area is the result of the introduced by health officials.
 a. disputes b. complexities c. obstacles d. measures
- 132 . When somebody a responsibility, he/she has to try to do his/her best to do it well.
 a. assumes b. rejects c. puts off d. gives up
- 133 . The patient was relieved after the of the new drug.
 a. administration b. accumulation c. investigation d. transmission
- 134 . He did not do anything new; his experiment is a/an of what others have already done.
 a. replication b. distortion c. orientation d. distraction
- 135 . Today, there are more than five million people in the United States alone who are addicted and dependent on painkillers or similar
 a. incentives b. clamps c. anesthetics d. opiates